REMARKABLE FUNERAL.

On Sunday last was interred in the burial ground of St. Martin-in-the-fields, the remains of Hugh Hewson, who died at the advanced age of 85. The deceased was a man of no mean celebrity, though no funeral escutcheons adorned his hearse, or heir expectant graced his obsequies. He was no less a personage than the identical Hugh Strap, whom Dr. Smollet has rendered so conspicuously interesting in his life and adventures of Roderick Random, and for upwards of forty years had kept a hair dressers shop in the above parish. The deceased was a very intelligent man, and took delight in recounting the adventures of his early life. He spoke with pleasure of the time he passed in the service of the doctor, and it was his pride as well as boast, to say that he had been educated in the same seminary with so learned and distinguished a character. His shop was hung round with latin quotations, and he would frequently point out to his customers and acquaintances the several scenes in Roderick Random, pertaining to himself, which had their foundation, not in the doctor's inven- tive fancy, but in truth and reality. The meeting at a barber's shop at New- castle-upon-Tyne, the subsequent mistake at the inn, their arrival together in London and the assistance they experienced from Strap's friend, were all of that description. We understand the deceased has left behind him an interlined copy of Roderick Random, pointing out these facts, shewing how far they were indebted to the genius of the Doctor, and to what extent they were bot- tomed in reality. The deceased could never succeed in gaining more than a respect- able subsistence by his trade, but he pos- sessed an independence of mind superior to his humble condition. Of late years he was employed as keeper of the Promenade in Valletta, Walk, Adelphi, and was much no- ticed and respected by the inhabitants who frequented that place.

Alexander in Daily Gazette.

TUESDAY, MAY 15.

Capt Sawyer who arrived at Boston, on 9th inst. from Lisbon, informs that when he sailed from that city (April 8th) the French had not arrived there, and the period of their expected arrival were various. It was stated, from seven days to two months: That the French were a landing into Portugal in two col- umns, under Marshalls Launay and Junot, whose united force was estimated in round numbers at 80,000; that they had taken Oporto, and had advanced several leagues beyond it; but that their progress was slow, owing doubtless to the scarcity of subsistence in the country they were over- running. That the British troops in Por- tugal amounted to upwards of 21,000; and the Portuguese army was estimated at fifty thousand. That the British were re- pairing the fortifications; but that notwith- standing these it was not expected a de- fence of the city would be attempted; and that on the near approach of the French, the British and Portuguese would embark on board the British fleet in the Tagus which consisted of two sail of the line three or four frigates, and 3000 sail of transports; part of which would proceed to Brazil, the others for England. The intelligence from Spain was extremely vague and limited.

The first indication Capt. S. had of the removal of the embargo, was seeing the ocean again whitened with American can- vass.

Captain Jackson, who arrived here yester- day from Martinico, informs of the arri- val there of admiral Duckworth's squadron of six sail of the line, in pursuit of the L'Orient French squadron; and had sailed for the Saints. This squadron will aug- ment the British blockading force to ten sail of the line; which it is expected must speedily capture or destroy the French squadron; and render abortive another at- tempt of Napoleon to obtain "ships, com- merce and colonies."

[N. Y. pap.]

An extraordinary instance of longevity lately occurred in the island of Jamaica, in the person of Joseph Ram, a black man, belonging to Morrice Hall estate, and who died in December last, at the advanced age of 140 years; he perfectly remembered the duke of Albemarle, who succeeded to the government of that island in 1687. His daughter, Grace Martin, an inhabitant of Spanish Town, and upwards of 85 years of age, says he had a complete set of new teeth about 20 years ago, which remained sound to the day of his death. His hair turned quite gray: he retained his sight and memo- ry well, and had all his senses perfect, ex- cept that of smelling. He was stout and in- clined to corpulence: was never sick but once, and all the physic he ever took in his life was one dose of nut oil. He had 26 children by different women. His appetite was always good, and a few days previous to his death, he walked a distance of four miles. His dissolution was gradual, and unattended by pain or sickness; it seemed indeed to be the mere decay of nature.

When Aristotle was asked, what a man could gain by telling a falsehood, he re- plied, not to be credited when he speaks the truth.

Mortals are too often ingenious in mak- ing themselves miserable, by aggravating to their own fancy, beyond bound, all the evils which they endure. They compare them- selves with none but those whom they ima- gine to be more happy; and complain, that upon them alone has fallen the whole load of human sorrows. Would they look with a more impartial eye on the world, they would see themselves surrounded with suf- ferers; and find that they are only drinking out of that mixed cup, which Providence has prepared for all. I will restore thy daughter again to life, said an eastern sage, to a prince who grieved immoderately for the loss of a beloved child, provided thou art able to engrave on her tomb the names of three persons who have never mourned. The prince made enquiry after such per- sons; but found the enquiry vain, and was silent.

Motto for a TEA CHEST—Tu Doces.

An Italian philosopher thus expressed his motto: "TIME WAS HIS ESTATE." An estate indeed, which will produce nothing without cultivation, but which will always abundantly repay the labors of industry and satisfy the most extensive desires, if no part of it be suffered to lie waste by negli- gence; to be overrun with noxious plants, or laid out for snow rather than use.

There is "a something" exquisitely beauti- ful in the following SONG—BY WALLER.

GO, lovely rose!

Tell her that wastes her time, and me,
That now she knows,
When I resemble her to thee,
How sweet and fair she seems to be.

Tell her that's thy young,
And shuns to have her graces spied,
That hadst thou sprung
In desarts where no men abide,
Thou must have uncommended died.

Small is the worth
Of beauty from the light retired;
Bid her come forth,
Suffer herself to be desir'd,
And n't blush so to be admir'd.

Then die! that she,
The common fate all things rare
May read in thee:
How small a part of time they share,
That are so wondrous sweet and fair!

R. C. SKINNER,

SURGEON DENTIST, &c.

RESPECTFULLY informs the citizens of Alexandria and its vicinity, that his continuance at or near that city until the next session of Congress, proposes to attend to his professional business in this town until the 20th of May. The superior manner in which he inserts Teeth in the human head, their perfect natural appearance, and the ease his operations are invariably performed in, are objects worthy the attention of those persons who have been so unfortunate as to lose their front teeth. To those persons whose teeth are partially decayed, or are covered with the septic acid, or tartar, he will only observe that immediate relief may be obtained, and their teeth preserved, [free from pain] during life. His regular apprenticeship, long practice, and superior recommendations, (it is presumed) will entitle him to the confidence of those that require his assistance.

Dr. SKINNER may be consulted any hour at Mr. Miburn's, sign of the Golden Ball, Union-street.
May 9.

Doctor I. J. Conyn,

A professional DENTIST—of Baltimore,

RESPECTFULLY acquaints the LADIES and GENTLEMEN of Alexandria, that he intends to practice in this place for a few days, in all the various branches of his profession. No genteel person of either sex, can give or receive pleasure or comfort, by teeth coated with tart or decayed gums, or festered breath. His method of cleaning the teeth will be found both easy and efficacious, as hundreds can attest in Baltimore and elsewhere. Without giving pain, or hurting the enamel, he removes the tartar, &c. when the teeth will assume a beautiful appearance the gums adhering to the teeth; but if the state of the gums require it, doctor C. will give to the person an antiseptic lotion of chemical preparation, which gained the applause of hundreds both in Europe and America. It is pleasant, innocent, and effectual, in smoothing and whitening the teeth and curing the gums, rendering them red and firm, preventing the decay of the teeth and sweetening the breath. Doctor C. fits artificial teeth from one to an entire set, with such nicety, as to answer the entire purposes of nature, and of so natural an appearance that it is impossible to distinguish them from real ones. Dr. C. flatters himself from his being regularly bred to the practice of physick, as well as to the Dentist Business, and his long experience on the continent of Europe (France and Spain) to give to all those who favour him with their patronage every possible satisfaction.

May 12. Dr. C. will wait on any lady or gentleman at their respective lodgings or may be consulted at the City Tavern.

USEFUL PROPERTIES

YARWOOD'S

Patent Washing Machine.

THIS highly useful Machine is found by experience to excel any hitherto in use. It will wash as many cloaths (by the assistance of one person) in an hour as can be washed in a whole day, without the possibility of injuring, fretting or tearing the most delicate article, and with less than half the quantity of soap. It occupies very little more space than the common wash-tub, and with the least care will not create any slop or wet—the construction is very simple and attended with little expense. A further description of its qualities is now deemed unnecessary, as it is presumed none will purchase without examining it.

We the subscribers do hereby certify that we have found, on trial, the above named Machine to answer fully the above description. Given under our hands this 5th day of May, A. D. 1809.

DANIEL CARROLL, of Dud. President.

April 26—27.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY, from the subscribers, two Slaves, named BILLY and NELLY.

Billy is a mulatto man, and sometimes calls himself WILLIAM JORDAN AUGUSTUS—his color nearly as light and approaches that of a white man, his hair is straight and he generally wears it platted and turned up behind with a comb—his visage is remarkably thin and his cheek bones high—he has been bro't up in the house and is a very good dining-room servant, is about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, very straight built, his constitution is not very strong and he is subject to indisposition—he is about 30 years of age.

NELLY is tall and rather inclined towards corpulency, a tawny color and about forty-five years of age.

They went off together as man and wife, but it is very probable Billy will attempt to pass as a white man and will endeavor to sell Nelly as his slave.

The above reward will be paid for the apprehension and securing of the said Slaves, if taken up on the north side of the river Potomac, and information given thereof to their respective proprietors. A reasonable reward will be given if taken within the state of Virginia, and reasonable charges will be paid if brought home.

George Carter, Oatlands, near Leesburg, Virginia.

A. Long, County of Culpepper, Virginia.
